

XO Communication's restructuring is an injustice to the XO Common Stockholders and something needs to be done about it. As a common stock holder and former employee my money to purchase shares is just as much an investment as Forstmann Little and they cannot be allowed to wipe my shares clean